

Leadership Development Project
Collaborative Action Research Grants | Fall 2016
$344,200

Lead Organization	Partner Organizations	Project Name and Description	Grant Amount
Alliance San Diego	New American Leaders Project (NALP) , Partnership for the Advancement of New Americans (PANA), Pillars of the Community, Wellstone Action	Candidate and Campaign Manager Pipeline Project : A non-partisan leadership development program committed to addressing the growing demand to engage, empower and prepare social justice-minded leaders with the skills and strategies to move into positions of local leadership as elected officials and campaign managers.	$50,000
Center on Policy Initiatives	Environmental Health Coalition, Alliance San Diego, SD Labor Council, Building Trades, Alliance of Californians for Community Empowerment (ACCE), City Heights CDC, SD Housing Federation	Boards and Commissions Leadership Institute : The Boards and Commissions Leadership Institute identifies new leaders and supports/trains existing leaders in Boards and Commissions to build capacity in communities that have been largely underrepresented and disenfranchised.	$80,000
Environmental Health Coalition	Alliance of Californians for Community Empowerment (ACCE)	Leaders in Housing and Transportation Justice : EHC and ACCE partnering to increase the connection between their leadership development resources and jointly grow the power of underrepresented communities on the issues of housing, transportation, redevelopment, and displacement.	$100,000
Paving Great Futures	National Conflict Resolution Center-- Southern Eastern San Diego Branch	Paving Great Futures' Leadership Development and Community Civic Engagement Project : Four point grassroots intervention strategy, through partnership with National Conflict Resolution Center to eliminate the information and participation gap in the underrepresented community of Southeastern San Diego.	$50,000
Unitarian Universalist Refugee and Immigrant Services and Education	FarmWorker CARE Coalition, North County Immigration Task Force	North County Immigrant Leadership Project : Formalizing relationships and developing synergistic systems that will expand leadership development opportunities for all North County immigrant individuals and families.	$64,200

Contact

Megan Thomas, Senior Director of Collaborative Philanthropy, San Diego Grantmakers
megan@sdgrantmakers.org | 858-875-3332